FROM THE EAST

To the Craft –

My year in the East is about to close, and I wish to thank everyone at the lodge for their support. It was a pleasure to help direct the craft's work at Ribault and I wish us many more years of great fellowship at our lodge and abroad. Here is a summary of 2019 in review (my apologies in advance if missed any items):

Education: We held regular Masonic education presentations at our stated meetings and spent several Saturday mornings early in the year covering the U.S. Declaration of Independence and Bill of Rights. All current elected officers, and those nominated for 2020, have completed the Master Mason exams, Masonic Leadership Training, and Lodge Officer Training courses. Many of us attended the monthly Schools of Instruction (SOI) throughout the year, and Ribault hosted the May SOI on receiving the DDGM.

Ritual Work: We put on several degrees this year, and as always, the practice time and effort put into each one showed well. Let's continue the tradition of supporting our future new members during their degrees, and a reminder to those so inclined they should try to obtain their proficiency cards in 2020.

Fellowship: We held our Family Night in May at the lodge, and traveled to stated meetings at J.W. Fargis, Wm. B. Barnett, Duval, and Solomon Lodges. Several brothers from out of state/town lodges visited us during the year, and many of our brothers traveled to other lodges in 2019. It's a great fraternity spread far and wide across the globe.

Charity: Our Ribault Financially Stressed Families charity continued to help needy families in 2019. We raised money for the Hubbard House (a representative will be at our stated meeting dinner on Dec. 10th to discuss their services to the community and to receive their donation check from the lodge), for the Children's Home Society Christmas event (run by Solomon Lodge with support for local lodges like Ribault), and for the Canine Companions for Independence (CCI) guide dogs.

Community Support: The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts each visited us in February; we adopted a local classroom at Atlantic Beach Elementary to read to the kids and donate supplies to them; our annual donut and coffee event at the beaches Easter sunrise service was well-attended; and we provided a thank-you dinner for the Mayport Sea Turtle Patrol members who protected a record number of nests this year.

The lodge itself installed a new tessellated border above the East, along with a matching blue curtain across the back wall. This past summer saw a major roof leak develop, which necessitated the entire roof being replaced due to its age. Several brothers received their distinguished multi-decade membership awards, and inevitably several brothers also departed us in 2019 for that grand celestial lodge in the heavens above. Remember to keep those still here that may be in poor health in your prayers, and stand ready to assist in any way if needed.

Last, a hearty THANK YOU to my fellow 2019 officers who made my job easy, and a note of great thanks to Wor. Gary Stengl, who dutifully puts together the monthly trestleboard newsletter for us all and does a super job at that. Looking forward to seeing you all in 2020 as I rejoin you on the sidelines. I'm sure our incoming W. M. has lots of exciting things in store for Ribault Lodge in the year ahead.

Merry Christmas to all, and wishes for a healthy and prosperous 2020.

Fraternally,

Bob Bracey, W.:M.:
