FROM THE EAST

To the Craft –

The past couple months have brought on a tenacious cold and flu season for many friends and family, and some of our brothers at Ribault were also affected. We are glad that they chose to rest and recover at home, and we welcome you all back to lodge as you are able to attend. Prayers for continued recovery to those still feeling ill, and to those whose medical conditions are of concern.

On March 5th, we held an EA degree for our 3 newest brothers (Tracy Parsons, Grant Zilkowski, Zachary Jones). It was very well attended and Br. Gene Hall did an exemplary job in the East! Let’s welcome the new brothers when they attend lodge and support them in their catechism efforts. Their FC degree will be scheduled in the coming month or two. Our current 2 FC brothers (CJ Singleton and Mike Paone) are about to test for their catechism proficiency, with big thanks to Wor. Brian Powell and Brother Gene Hall for helping them with their studies. We plan to hold their MM degree in conjunction with the scheduled MM degree at JW Fargis Lodge on April 6th – breakfast 8:00A degree at 9:00A. Please come join us in their raising.

Ritual Work: The March school of instruction (SOI) at Duval Lodge covered Part 1 of the MM degree, and we had 5 Ribault brothers in attendance. The April SOI is on the 17th at Callahan Lodge, and covers Part 2 of the MM degree. Please mark your calendars to attend. It is time well-spent and good fellowship.

Education: Join us for our once-monthly Saturday education series, “Our Founding Freedoms”, which continues on the last Saturday of each month at 9:00A. The presentation is open to all – family and friends invited. Brother Gene Hall puts on a great event. Please gather your family members and friends, and join us at the next one on April 27th - Coffee and donuts will be on hand. If you know any Boy/Girl Scouts, please encourage them to attend as well.

Charity & Community Support: A reminder: Easter Sunday is coming up soon on APR 21st, and we will continue our annual tradition of bringing coffee, hot chocolate and donuts down to the beach at Sunrise to share with and join in the celebration with the local community. Afterwards everyone and their families/friends are welcome to join in a hearty breakfast back at Ribault. Our JW Peter Miller will be asking for some help in bringing breakfast side dishes and working in the kitchen, so please think about what you can bring and get with Pete on the details. Our brothers from JW Fargis will of course join us that day as they do each year – we really look forward to this event.

Fellowship: We had a terrific Ribault turnout at our travel to Solomon Lodge on March 11th, securing their beehive tool and bringing it back to our lodge for a brief stay. Our next traveling meeting will be to Barnett Lodge on TUES April 2nd to enjoy fellowship and procure their traveling tool. I ask for your support that night if you can join us at Barnett – it is appreciated. Planning is continuing for a Ribault Family night event in late Spring

– I hope to have more information to share next month – stay tuned.

Thank you again for your ongoing support and regular attendance at our meetings – we have a terrific lodge and I look forward to seeing you all at every meeting.

Fraternally,
Bob Bracey
