FROM THE EAST

To the Craft –

Summer is here and I hope everyone is doing well, slowing down, and staying cool inside. In June we welcomed our new R.:W.: DDGM, Mark Balester, with his first official visit to Ribault Lodge. The turnout was great from the craft and the J.W. prepared a fine meal for us all. G.:M.: John Westerman’s message to all Masons during his year is “Each One, Reach One”, and is intended to increase Masonic membership in all lodges. Surely each of us knows one person who we believe would make a good Mason and fellow brother of the craft – let that person know he’s welcome to learn more and perhaps petition to join.

Our lodge has experienced a small roof leak, and we have formed a team to get this addressed quickly and will make the needed repairs to the interior ceiling and drywall areas affected. Once repairs are made, we will announce a short lodge cleanup event to get the upstairs & downstairs looking good again. I’ll send out email once we pick a day and time.

The NE FL Masonic Association meeting for July is currently set for the 24th at AJ Russell Lodge, but this could change. If you intend on going, please check with me in early July to confirm that the date has not moved. The July School of Instruction (SOI) is set for July 17, 2019 at Wm B. Barnett Lodge No.187 and will cover the Entered Apprentice Degree. There is a training session on July 27th at Ezra Lodge to cover the Master Mason 1, 2 & 3 exams – if any brother needs those courses please consider attending. Open books for July will be on the 18th at Baldwin Lodge.

If you know of a brother who has not yet paid their 2019 dues, please remind them that they are past due. It’s vital to our lodge finances that every brother remember their oath and keep their dues current.

Thank you again for your ongoing support and regular attendance at our meetings – we have a terrific lodge and I look forward to seeing you all at every meeting.

Fraternally,
Bob Bracey
