FROM THE EAST

To the Craft –

August was a busy month – our new roof replacement work was completed recently and we will next turn our attention to fixing the drywall inside, along with fresh paint and carpet cleaning.

HAPPENINGS: Red Waddill, P.M., was presented his 40 year recognition award in Masonry at our first meeting in August. Congratulations Red! Our Grand Master's official visit to the area was August 24th at the Scottish Rite – dinner and fellowship was fantastic, and everyone had a good time. Over 350 people attended for the 8th and 9th districts. The G.M. spoke on his "Each One, Reach One" message and gave us some ideas to get more involved in our local communities. To that end, Ribault is helping to sponsor a thank you dinner for the hard work of the volunteer Sea Turtle watch up at Mayport NAS. They helped protect a record 37 hatchling nests this year – the most they have ever recorded. We'll take some pictures and distribute to the media and in our next Trestleboard. The NE FL Masonic Association meeting for September is the 25th at Baldwin Lodge. The School of Instruction (SOI) is September 18th at A.J. Russell Lodge and will cover Part I of the Master Mason Degree. Open books for September will be on the 19th at Baldwin Lodge. JW Fargis Lodge has their annual Great American Steak Encounter dinner on Saturday September 28th - $12/person, get there by 500P. If you want to go, let R.W. Frank Kleese know. All those needing to take the Master Mason I, II, III exams can attend an all-day workshop September 7th at Amelia Lodge to complete this – doors open at 700AM.

Don't forget - September 17th will be our Ribault travel meeting to Duval Lodge. I ask that you join me for a fun evening of fellowship with our brothers there. Please let me know if you are going, so I can give them a number for additional mouths to feed that night.

Please mark down and attend our next degree coming on October 15th. We will have at least one new candidate for his EA degree that night. Our SD Robin Sidbury will be in the East, and I know we will all support him in every way to make the evening a great experience for all.

A big thanks to all the brothers who have paid their 2019 dues. We have just a few remaining who need to pay and hope they will do so quickly and continue supporting their lodge.

Thank you again for your ongoing fellowship, support and regular attendance at our meetings – we have a terrific lodge and I look forward to seeing you all at every meeting.

Fraternally,

Bob Bracey, W.M.
