FROM THE EAST

Brothers,

A “near flawless” Master Mason degree was conducted on February 4th with R.:W.: Charlie Irle in the East. After the Lodge closing, DDGM R.:W.: Mark Balaster complimented the team on a “fine job”. We had many Brothers that had never participated in any degree and they all performed admirably! Our newly raised Brothers, Andrew McCarty and Chris Guisti experienced a most memorable evening. Congratulations to all that participated in the Degree!

We have three newly received petitions in progress and another E.A. brother plans to join the group to complete his journey to the East. If you are interested in being part of any of the degree teams, please make your preferences known for the part that you desire to fill. Don't worry about being a little “rusty”, we will have plenty of time to develop or re-sharpen those skills before the Degrees!

Tuesday, March 31st will mark the end of the first Quarter of the year. Make plans now for you, your friends and family to join us for a casual evening of relaxed dinner and social fellowship at Mavi's restaurant, 2309 Beach Blvd at the Intra-Coastal waterway. This will be a buy-your-own dinner and an opportunity for all of our friends and families to meet each other and to showcase who we are and why we enjoy each other's company on a regular basis.

If you have a friend or associate that may be a candidate for the three degrees, this will be the perfect time to expose him to our Masonic family! Depending on the attendance and success of this dinner, we may repeat it at another restaurant in the future!

I, along with your Ribault Brothers, look forward to seeing you in Lodge and visiting with your family and guests at the dinner!

“Only the Bold Succeed”

Sincerely and Fraternally,

John R. Craft, W.:M.:

M.:W.: Westerman recently held his “Each One Reach One” seminar at the Scottish Rite Temple which was well attended by your Ribault Brothers
