FROM THE EAST

During this time of uncertainty with the Coronavirus we, as Men and Masons, will be tested for our dedication to the principle of Brotherly Love.

While most of us have friends and family as a support network, I realize that many of our Brothers and their neighbors may face this temporary situation alone.

I encourage each and every Brother to maintain communications with each other and those most vulnerable in your communities. Phone calls and emails are a "no risk" manner to demonstrate that you care.

Those of us that are capable and willing should offer to run short errands to pick up medicines or necessities for those less capable or more vulnerable. Small tokens of caring like rolling out the garbage or offering to bring in the mail from the curbside box can be a major reassurance to our neighbors that there is someone who cares.

Now, more than ever, you should be extremely careful to avoid your own contamination or being a conduit for contamination to those you love or are aiding.

If I may, I will direct your attention to those words in the closing charge of our communications: “Remember that at this altar you have promised to befriend and relieve every Brother who shall need your assistance.” The charge also includes the phrase: “Every Human Being has a claim upon your kind offices. Do good unto all.”

If you are in need, or willing to assist those in need and don't know where to start, I can always be reached via my personal email, the Lodge email or my cell phone listed in the trestle-board. Together we can develop and execute a plan to assist those in need. I look forward to hearing from you!

Stay Calm and Build for a Better World.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,
John R. Craft, W.:M.:
