Calendar

May 2020

Due to situation caused by COVID-19, all Masonic activities in Florida are dark until at least May 4. Stay tuned for updates.

FROM THE EAST

As the efforts to combat the effects of the Coronavirus continue, we as men and Masons pray for the day that we may return to somewhat of a “normal” routine.

While “normal” may take on an entirely new meaning in the future, the Ancient Landmarks and the tenets of our order, Truth, Relief and Brotherly Love, remain the same today, tomorrow and forever.

The Grand Master’s directive that all lodge activities throughout Florida are suspended until after May 4th remains in effect. Hopefully the current situation will have improved and we will be able to return to our regular Lodge communications on May 12th.

There has been no directive regarding the Annual Communications of the Grand Lodge at the time of this writing. Hopefully we will soon learn of the procedures for this years’ communications and the continuation of regular lodge activities for the remainder of the year. When we receive that guidance, it will be forwarded to each of you immediately.

During this forced sabbatical, I encourage each of us to take a few moments to reach out to our Brothers, friends, neighbors and relatives to reassure them that we remain committed to their wellbeing and offer any necessary assistance.

“Social Distancing” is not social isolation!

If I can be of assistance, please don’t hesitate to contact me via my personal email, Lodge email or my cell phone listed in the trestle-board.

Remain Calm and Build for a Better Tomorrow!

Sincerely and Fraternaly,
John R. Craft, W:.M.:

FROM THE CHAPLAIN

Following our WM’s comments, I would like to remind each of my Brothers that I am available to provide assistance within our community with prayers, phone calls, etc. Financial assistance which falls within the limits and requirements of our Financially Stressed Family Charity may also be possible.

If you know of any needs which need follow-up, please call (leave a message) or TEXT or EMAIL - grstengl@bellsouth.net

Fraternaly,
Gary Stengl, PM
