FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

There have been a few changes to our March plans. The EA degree has been rescheduled to March 29 and the Solomon Lodge visit will be rescheduled to March 12. I am also looking to schedule lodge visits to Fargis, Duval, Ashlar and others to share in Brotherly love as well as obtain traveling tools.

Based on the latest meeting of our "Ribault PR Committee", we have acquired a good bit of information and we are looking forward to having an outline for our outreach presentation in place this month. Needless to say between the presentation and our monthly Mysteries of Masonry meetings, a lot of incredible masonic information is being shared by the Brethren. If you have not yet made it to the Mysteries of Masonry meetings (held on the last Saturday of every month at 8am), I strongly encourage each of you to do so.

I have also started receiving email concerning Grand Lodge so expect some updates in the near future.

Needless to say, we have quite a bit to do so let's roll!!

Fraternally Yours,
WM Neil Hornick

FROM THE WEST

Brothers -

A brief column this month to remind us of the importance of symbols and allegory to the teachings of our craft. I came across this poem (below) and shared it in our last stated meeting. I present it again for you to read and ponder over. Also, if you have not been to our monthly Mysteries series on the last Saturday of each month, you missed a great presentation on symbols and allegory in FEB.

I have started a process to rebuild our lodge website with help from the craft, and it is an early WIP at this time. The links to the Mysteries presentations will eventually all be categorized there:

www.ribault272.com (remember, this site is very rough at the moment and it will be an ongoing process to update it over the coming months - thank you for your patience).

ECCE SIGNUM (*)

Men toil along the road of life,
But each one looks with different eyes.
Some note but dross or mud or gloom;
Some see bright logos in the skies.

A gavel strikes; the trowel spreads
Cement to join the ashlar tight.
Freemasons know they're more than tools; They point the way to Truth and Light.

Wise Plato taught, the world's unreal;
A thing's eternal in the mind.
Life's candle brief is but a symbol,
By God's immortal love defined.
