FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

Easter sunrise service was an awesome experience as usual. Thank you to our brothers at J. Wendell Fargis Lodge for your help with this event, and delicious breakfast, so very successful every year.

Grand Lodge is coming up next month. It will be my last one as an elected officer of Ribault Lodge and I am excited for it. There is quite a bit of legislation to discuss beforehand so we can make our voices heard.

After an incredible lodge visit from our brothers from Pineland Lodge in Palatka, I am very much looking forward to our trip to their lodge to return the favor, retrieve our travelling gavel as well as share brotherly love. We also need to make some more lodge visits as our Brothers from Pineland plan to visit other lodges in our district to obtain their travelling tools. So I will step up our lodge visit schedule to try to share brotherly love within our district, as well as pick up a few travelling tools as well.

I am also personally grateful to all of my brothers for your continued support of Wreaths Across America. It is a very personal mission for me and all of your help is sincerely appreciated.

Fraternally Yours,
WM Neil Hornick

My Brothers –

Participation matters.

Our first 3 months of 2018 have passed quickly, and I am grateful to see many of the newer brothers in our meetings each month. We have been diligent about presenting an interesting Masonic education topic at each stated meeting, and at our monthly Mysteries meeting (last Saturday of each month, 8:00A-9:00A) we delve into the deeper teachings, esoteric matters, and historical information as it relates to Masonry & the fraternity.

If you have not been to lodge in a while, please do come to at least one meeting each month. Our brother JW John Craft is cooking some delicious meals, and I hope the education we present at the meetings is enlightening to you. If your time permits, please join us at the monthly Mysteries meeting too – they have been very well received. All master masons are welcome. We keep a strict clock and take just one hour, so you can get on with your weekend activities.

Enjoy the warmer weather this Spring – this is my favorite time of the year.

See you in lodge!

Sincerely & Fraternaly,

Bob Bracey, SW
