FROM THE EAST

Brethren,
Grand Lodge is the 28th through the 30th this month in Orlando and I am looking forward to it as well as a chance to meet up with Brothers from all over the state. It should be a great time as always.

I am also looking forward to our lodge visit to William B. Barnett Lodge on May 1 and Ionic Lodge on May 3. I am looking to schedule a lodge visit to J. Wendell Fargis to share in Brotherly love and obtain some more travelling tools this month, so it is shaping up to be a busy May. Looking a bit ahead, I am also planning our return trip to Pineland Lodge on Palatka in June so please keep that in mind during May.

I have contacted Mike Vickers, our Zone 3 Chairman of Masonic Education about conducting Master Mason I, II and III as well as Lodge Officer Training at Ribault. I have not heard back from Mike about MM I, II and III yet, but he is planning to conduct LOTC over three full Saturdays (two of which are scheduled at Duval and J. Wendell Fargis Lodges). I volunteered our lodge to hold the third Saturday LOTC. Once I hear back from him with dates and times, I will update all of you.

Lastly, our new EA Brother Andrae Gryce recently learned that instead of shipping out in early June, he is actually leaving on May 26. With that in mind, we need to try to get him through his next two degrees before that time. Therefore we will need to get Fellowcraft and Master Mason Degree teams put together on the quick to make this happen for our Brother. I am confident we can make this happen.

Fraternally Yours,
WM Neil Hornick

NOTICES

Ribault visit to Duval Lodge for their Traveling Trowel

From The West

Brothers - In my column last month, I reminded all that participation matters. We had a fine example of this, and how one brother from the U.K., Graeme Aldridge, made it a point to seek out some local Jacksonville lodges during his visit to the U.S. in April. We had two visits from Graeme on our stated meeting nights in April, and he exemplified some of the UGLE forms and ceremonies for us, which are quite different from Florida lodge work - it was great to see how our brothers "across the pond" work. Graeme also performed a memorized lecture from the second degree, to high applause from the craft. He was presented with a silver G.M. coin by R.W.D.D.G.M. Dave Thomas, and R.W. Frank Kleese was able to procure a FL Grand Lodge necktie for him, courtesy of M.W.G.S. Richard Lynn.

Graeme is a member of Theodore Lodge 8943 (UGLE), in Bicester, Oxfordshire U.K. - if your travels abroad ever find you in the U.K. , please call on Br. Graeme - he promises to show you around and return the kind fellowship and brotherly love he received while over here. We truly are a global fraternity. Participation matters.

Sincerely and Fraternally,
